

Struggling Readers 2018 Symposium

October 21st

12:30 - 4:00 pm

Does your bright child feel alone and self-conscious about their reading and/or writing struggles? Do they hide counting on their fingers to do simple math?

BVKID invites parents, students, teachers, and the Boulder Valley community at large to a reading symposium on Sunday afternoon October 21, 2018 in the atrium of the CU Leeds School of Business, Koelbel Building.

12:30-2:00 Experience Dyslexia® Simulation $10 - Experience some of the challenges and frustrations associated with dyslexia. Purchase tickets at <https://bit.ly/2wkHKrm>

2:00-3:00 Meet the Experts, Network with Other Parents (free!) - Ask your questions to reading tutors, teachers, education therapists, neuropsychologists. Meet other parents of struggling readers.

3:00-4:00 Presentation by Chris Anthony (free!) - Professional Skier, Warren Miller Athlete and Filmmaker - Chris grew up impacted by dyslexia. He found perseverance and confidence through sports. He's now back in the classroom via Chris Anthony Youth Initiative. Come and be inspired!

Interpretation available upon request with prior notification

Boulder Valley Kids Identified with Dyslexia

Connect, Learn, Advocate: bvkid.org

BV-KID on Facebook | bouldervalleykid@gmail.com

NEW!!

Bring your children!

2:00-3:00 Kids Only Event (free!) - BVKID is partnering with Hillside School to provide an opportunity for kids to have a discussion with peers who experience similar challenges in school.

Visit our website for more info - bvkid.org